FIRST PRIZE

Right chef, wrong kitchen

Enter our entirely wholesome and splendid competition for the chance to win a visit, in New Year 2010, from our esteemed and talented Head Chef.

Once in your kitchen, he will coach and cajole you through the business of cooking a three-course meal for six.

That's right; the poor love works all the hours God sends (and a few more besides) for weeks, preparing lipsmacking festive fare for The Olive Tree Restaurant and then, just when the slippers, cooking sherry and a big comfy chair beckon, we pop him in a taxi round to yours. (Don't worry, our chef's not A BIT like those coarse and shouty ones you might've seen on TV.)

For a chance to win, please just send us an email with your name and contact details included, before 31st December '09

Terms & Conditions

Please be advised that our chef is likely to get lost should he venture too far from Bath, and as such this offer is restricted to within a 25 mile radius. The draw will take place in Jan 2010 for this current offer.
